Warrington YOUTH FOR CHRIST

Kim shares about an incredibly significant weekend at Creamfields...

Kim Wellens Latchford

"Over the August Bank Holiday, churches across Warrington and beyond came together to love and serve the people at Creamfields festival, and Warrington Youth for Christ were thrilled to be involved for the fourth time. With church tents on two of the campsites open 24 hours a day, a team of over 60 volunteers ran safe spaces for festival-goers to be welcomed, loved, and listened to.

We gave out thousands of free cups of water, our tradition of jammie dodgers, and took care of people who were worried, scared, lost, cold, or simply just wanted someone to talk to. Not only that, but we had countless significant conversations about faith as we were often asked why the church would want to be at Creamfields! So many people returned home from the festival with the message that they are unconditionally loved and valued. One young man said, "this is the most welcome I've ever felt in a church!"
